

“Rental Ready” Pre-Owned Lift Truck Scope of Work

1. Perform scheduled maintenance operations
2. Drive unit
  - a. Inspect for excessive play in gears and bearings, repair as necessary.
  - b. Replace any leaking seals.
3. Caster assembly
  - a. Replace excessively worn bearings, bushings, axles, wheels.
  - b. Adjust to factory specifications.
4. Brakes
  - a. Replace any brake component more than 50% worn.
  - b. Test for proper operation and stopping distance within manufacturers’ specification.
5. Steering
  - a. Replace any excessively worn components.
  - b. Properly align and adjust to manufactures specification.
4. Electrical panel
  - a. Ensure all connections are tight.
  - b. Replace any excessively worn or broken components.
5. Motors
  - a. Test motors and repair as necessary.
  - b. Inspect armature for excessive wear and replace if necessary.
  - c. Replace excessively worn brushes.
6. Valves & pumps
  - a. Reseal or replace excessively leaking hydraulic components.
  - b. Replace couplings if worn.
  - c. Test for proper output pressure.
7. Mast & carriage
  - a. Reseal or replace leaking hydraulic cylinders.
  - b. Inspect for faulty bearings and replace as necessary.
  - c. Check all welds for stress cracks and repair as necessary.
  - d. Inspect lift chains for excessive wear or damage and replace as necessary.
10. Hydraulics
  - a. Replace excessively worn or damaged hydraulic hoses.
  - b. Set all bypass pressures to original specifications.
11. Harness wiring and motor cables
  - a. Repair or replace any damaged wiring or cables.
  - b. Ensure all wiring is properly routed and labeled.
12. Tires and wheels
  - a. Replace any tire more than 50% worn.
13. Frame
  - a. Inspect for cracks and weld as necessary.
14. Finish
  - a. Touch-up paint
  - b. Replace missing or damaged warning labels
  - c. Replace excessively worn floor and leg pads
15. Final inspection
  - a. Test all components and functions and adjust to match the manufactures original quality assurance report.
  - b. Ensure manufacture specification tags are complete and accurate.